The Composition of the Local Committees:

Each local committee consists of eight members, being fit and proper persons.

The following category of persons are hereby required as per Section 32(2) of the KZN Liquor Act no 06 of 2010 as amended:

- 1) Section 32(2)(a) - One person who is in a possession of a legal qualification with a least five years' experience in the legal profession or the administration of justice;
- 2) Section 32(2)(b) - One person representing an Organised Commerce Body who has knowledge of the liquor industry but has no direct vested interest in the liquor industry, for the area in which the local committee is established. Candidates with a legal background will be preferable; and

- 3) Section 32(2)(d) - Two representatives appointed from the community in the area of the Local Committee, appointed by reason of their knowledge in the field of welfare or socio-economic development, social services or health. Candidates with a legal background will be preferable.

We are currently seeking these professional individuals with the relevant experience to serve in the Local Committees for a period of 3 years or such shorter period as may be determined by the honourable MEC with effect from date of appointment.

The MEC shall designate from amongst the members of each Local Committee one member as a Chairperson and another member as a Deputy Chairperson from amongst those members who meet the requirements in terms of the Act respectively.

Powers and functions of the Local Committees are to:

- 1) Deal with and consider all applications for licences made in terms of the Act.
- 2) Make recommendations in respect of all applications to the Regulatory Authority after considerations of the applications.
- 3) Advise the Regulatory Authority or furnish a report or recommendations on any matter referred to it by the Regulatory Authority for consideration and arising from the application of the Act.
- 4) Perform such other functions as may be assigned to it in terms of the Act.

Criteria for selection

All nominees' experience and background in accordance with the category for which such nomination is made, will be considered to determine the most suitable candidates. A nominee may not be appointed as a member of the Local Committee if that person:
