Consumer Protection is a schedule 4 competency in terms of the Constitution of South Africa with powers derived from the national Consumer Protection Act 68 of 2008 and the provincial KwaZulu Natal Consumer Protection Act 04 of 2013.

The Programme functions within the prescripts of a regulatory framework and in particular the Constitution. The strategic objective and purpose of this sub programme is to ensure that it contributes to one of the departments overall strategic goals viz vibrant institution of superior performance and regulation of businesses.

2.1 Display Exponential, innovative and visionary leadership by, pacing with the ever-changing times, not settling for less than the very best of ourselves, regardless of the circumstances; influencing one another to produce creative ideas, products, and services; and being resolute to achieve our collective vision.

3 Project Specific Background

The Office of Consumer Affairs has a mandate to conduct consumer education and awareness campaigns throughout the Kwazulu-Natal province in every financial year and our APP targets requires that the department conduct 1 421 consumer education and awareness programmes in the financial year 2025/2026. The Department is planning to reach and exceed our APP target thereby conducting MEC outreach events, major workshops, presentations, exhibitions and edutainment programmes in order to achieve our APP targets and as well as educating consumers about their consumer rights.

Most importantly, the planned consumer education and awareness programmes will be focused on Financial Literacy workshops at Primary, Secondary and Tertiary institutions of higher learning thereby focusing on empowering our youth mainly the learners at schools and students at higher institutions on issues relating to savings, spending money wisely, avoiding credit and living a life without any credit. The segment of our programme will be consisting of edutainment for Learners, Students and Consumer by way of Edutainment Theatre Roadshows and Exhibitions conducted by professional actors. Last but not least, the last segment of our campaign will be focusing of social media live streaming campaign which the department can utilise in reaching out to young people and as well as the most vulnerable consumers mostly in the townships and rural areas specifically the areas where we are not receiving consumer complaints. Our road show and edutainment programme will be targeting all 11 KZN districts whereby the department is planning to use shopping centres, malls, schools, colleges and universities, community halls, and as well as taxi ranks.

The benefits of conducting these financial literacy campaigns, exhibitions, edutainment road shows in malls, local shopping centres, community halls and taxi ranks is that the department will be able to reach out to the most vulnerable indigent consumers in large audience and thereby disseminating the consumer education awareness programmes in a practical manner on various consumer themes which are of great significance to consumers. Lately, the department have noted that there is a large cohort of consumers who are highly indebted and most consumers who lost jobs with a high rate of unemployment in our province and therefore these campaigns will yield good results in that we will be able to provide good advice to most consumers who are feeling lost and helpless. Specifically, our campaigns and roadshows will be divided into various segments in that including:

- i. Financial Literacy workshops at schools, colleges and universities.
- ii. Launch of Case Management System
- iii. Launch of the Consumer Tribunal/Court
- iv. Festive Season campaign
- v. Price gouging by retailers on essential food products,
- vi. Unscrupulous Debt Collecting approaches
- vii. Save Money, Spend Wisely and Money Smart week campaign
- viii. Know your Consumer Rights campaign,
- ix. Contracts and buying used/new vehicles

- x. Credits and Blacklisting campaign,
- xi. "Know Your Consumer Rights" edutainment campaign to educate consumers about their consumer rights and how to access our district offices in order to increase the intake of the consumer complaints in the district offices.
- xii. "Financial literacy" edutainment campaign which will encourage proper budgetary control of individual consumer finances in various households.
- xiii. "Savings" edutainment campaign which will encourage consumers to draft monthly budgets that will assist in curbing unnecessary spending and contribute directly to saving.
- xiv. "Spending Wisely" edutainment campaigns will be rolled out during the festive season as consumers are much known for being impulsive buyers, not being able to distinguish between the needs and the wants.
- xv. "Borrow money wisely" edutainment campaign which will sensitize consumers to borrow money wisely from reputable banks and ensure that they borrow within the budget and what they can afford to pay back to the banks.
- xvi. "Illegal loan shark-Omashonisa" edutainment campaign to educate and caution consumers to only borrow from registered banks.
- xvii. "Back to school" edutainment campaign on legally registered academic institutions will be dealt with at the beginning of academic year.
- xviii. "Launch of the Consumer Tribunal/Court which will be a campaign to sensitize the KwaZulu-Natal consumers about their free access to the services of the Consumer Tribunal/Court which have been recently launched by the MEC to ensure that consumers are protected against unscrupulous and unfair business dealings which contravenes the Consumer Protection Act.

The objective of these campaigns are:-

- i. To create an awareness and understanding of the Consumer Protection laws in KZN thereby informing and educating consumers of their consumer rights and responsibilities; and
- ii. To create the awareness of the KZN Consumer Tribunal;
- iii. To inform and to empower consumers and society on consumer rights and businesses' obligations to advance a fair, accessible, and sustainable business practices.

National Regulators such as Motor Industry Ombudsman, National Credit Regulator, ICASA, NRCS, Banking Ombudsman, Consumer Goods Services Ombudsman, National Consumer Commission etc. will also be present during the exhibitions and edutainment roadshows to also assist the consumers on matters relating to consumer credits and agreements, as well as other stakeholders which will lead to a large scale of disseminating the consumer education to most consumers per day. The department have also engaged with the municipalities, malls, shopping centres and taxi ranks around the KZN province to make the space available free of charge in order for our teams to conduct the consumer education exhibitions and edutainments in all 11 districts and they have shown a great interest in the proposed plan of action. The department anticipates that the consumer education and awareness programmes will start in peak hours to target more consumers.

5.1 Overall Objectives

Exhibitions and edutainment plays an important role in the CPS response to global shifts in the fields of consumer rights advocacy as the method and strategy is practical and easily accessible to the most vulnerable consumers who do not have access to means of television and radio and therefore the use of the exhibitions and edutainment helps position the EDTEA CPS in KZN as a champion in upholding consumer rights, expands outreach and broadens engagement around consumer awareness programmes. Effective use of our practical platform on exhibitions and edutainment will provide direct channels for communication of CPS key messages, through relevant content, practical experience and dialogue thereby allowing consumers to connect directly with our staff and as well as Regulators, as well as business and industry sectors and platforms, thus creating valuable relationships with our consumers.

5.2 Key Output

Our Consumer Education Financial Literacy Edutainment roadshow campaign will be translated into the following themes:

The purpose of this campaign is to teach pupils and students at a tender age the value of saving and spending money by being credit wise and also to ensure that they live a simple life without incurring debts. The intention is to ensure that we empower the younger consumer market not to fall prey to living in debts and live within their financial means by being money wise. The main objective of this campaign will be to encourage proper budgetary control of individual consumer finances in various households.
- “Savings” edutainment campaign which will encourage consumers to draft monthly budgets that will assist in curbing unnecessary spending and directly to saving.
- “Spending Wisely” edutainment campaigns will be rolled out during the festive season as consumers are much known for being impulsive buyers, not being able to distinguish between the needs and the wants.
- “Borrow money wisely” edutainment campaign which will sensitize consumers to borrow money wisely from reputable banks and ensure that they borrow within the budget and what they can afford to pay back to the banks.
- “Illegal loan shark-Omashonisa” edutainment campaign to educate and caution consumers to only borrow from registered banks.
